

INSIDE HEALTH

PRIVACY NOTICE

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THAT INFORMATION.

PLEASE REVIEW THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY.

Inside Health (“Practice”) is not a HIPAA “Covered Entity”, as such term is defined in 45 C.F.R. Parts 160 and 164 but is committed to maintaining the privacy of your protected health information (“PHI”), which includes information about your health condition and the care and treatment you receive from the Practice. The creation of a record detailing the care and services you receive helps this office to provide you with quality health care. This Privacy Notice (“Notice”) details how your PHI may be used and disclosed to third parties. This Notice also details your rights regarding your PHI. Practice reserves the right to change the terms of this Notice and to make a new Notice effective for all PHI we maintain.

CONSENT

1. The Practice may use and/or disclose your PHI provided that it first obtains a valid Consent signed by you. The Consent will allow the Practice to use and/or disclose your PHI for the purposes of:

(a) Treatment – In order to provide you with the health care you require, the Practice may provide your PHI to health care professionals outside the Practice directly involved in your care so that they may understand your health condition and needs. For example, a physician treating you for a related condition may need to know the results of your latest examination by this office.

(b) Payment – In order to get paid for services provided to you, the Practice may provide your PHI, to a billing service.

(c) Health Care Operations – In order for the Practice to operate in accordance with applicable law and in order for the Practice to continue to provide quality and efficient services, it may be necessary for the Practice to compile, use and/or disclose your PHI. For example, the Practice may use your PHI in order to evaluate the performance of the Practice's personnel in providing services to you.

NO CONSENT REQUIRED

1. The Practice may use and/or disclose your PHI, without a written Consent from you, in the following instances:

(a) De-identified Information – Information that does not identify you and, even without your name, cannot be used to identify you.

(b) Business Associate – To a business associate if the Practice obtains satisfactory written assurance, in accordance with applicable law, that the business associate will appropriately safeguard your PHI. A business associate is an entity that assists the Practice in undertaking some essential function, such as a billing company that assists the office in submitting claims for payment to insurance companies or other payers.

(c) Personal Representative – To a person who, under applicable law, has the authority to represent you in making decisions related to your health care.

(d) Emergency Situations –

(i) for the purpose of obtaining or rendering emergency treatment to you provided that the Practice attempts to obtain your Consent as soon as possible; or

(ii) to a public or private entity authorized by law or by its charter to assist in disaster relief efforts, for the purpose of coordinating your care with such entities in an emergency situation.

(e) Communication Barriers – If, due to substantial communication barriers or inability to communicate, the Practice has been unable to obtain your Consent and the Practice determines, in the exercise of its professional judgment, that your Consent is clearly inferred from the circumstances.

(f) Public Health Activities -Such activities include, for example, information collected by a public health authority, as authorized by law, to prevent or control disease.

(g) Abuse, Neglect or Domestic Violence -To a government authority if the Practice is required by law to make such disclosure. If the Practice is authorized by law to make such a disclosure, it will do so if it believes that the disclosure is necessary to prevent serious harm.

(h) Health Oversight Activities -Such activities, which must be required by law, involve government agencies and may include, for example, criminal investigations, disciplinary actions, or general oversight activities relating to the community's health care system.

(i) Judicial and Administrative Proceeding -For example, the Practice may be required to disclose your PHI in response to a court order or a lawfully issued subpoena.

(j) Law Enforcement Purposes -In certain instances, your PHI may have to be disclosed to a law enforcement official. For example, your PHI may be the subject of a grand jury subpoena.

(k) Coroner or Medical Examiner -The Practice may disclose your PHI to a coroner or medical examiner for the purpose of identifying you or determining your cause of death.

(l) Organ, Eye or Tissue Donation -If you are an organ donor, the Practice may disclose your PHI to the entity to whom you have agreed to donate your organs.

(m) Research - If the Practice is involved in research activities, your PHI may be used, but such use is subject to numerous governmental requirements intended to protect the privacy of your PHI.

(n) Avert a Threat to Health or Safety -The Practice may disclose your PHI if it believes that such disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of a person or the public and the disclosure is to an individual who is reasonably able to prevent or lessen the threat.

(o) Specialized Government Functions - This refers to disclosures of PHI that relate primarily to military and veteran activity.

(p) Workers' Compensation -If you are involved in a Workers' Compensation claim, the Practice may be required to disclose your PHI to an individual or entity that is part of the Workers' Compensation system.

(q) National Security and Intelligence Activities – The Practice may disclose your PHI in order to provide authorized governmental officials with necessary intelligence information for national security activities and purposes authorized by law.

(r) Military and Veterans – If you are a member of the armed forces, the Practice may disclose your PHI as required by the military command authorities.

APPOINTMENT REMINDER

The Practice may, from time to time, contact you to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you. The following appointment reminders are used by the Practice: a) a postcard mailed to you at the address provided by you; and b) telephoning your home and leaving a message on your answering machine or with the individual answering the phone.

DIRECTORY/SIGN-IN LOG

The Practice maintains a directory of and sign-in log for individuals seeking care and treatment in the office. Directory and sign-in log are located in a position where staff can readily see who is seeking care in the office, as well as the individual's location within the Practice's office suite. This information may be seen by, and is accessible to, others who are seeking care or services in the Practice's offices.

FAMILY/FRIENDS

The Practice may disclose to your family member, other relative, a close personal friend, or any other person identified by you, your PHI directly relevant to such person's involvement with your care or the payment for your care. The Practice may also use or disclose your PHI to notify or assist in the notification (including identifying or locating) a family member, a personal representative, or another person responsible for your care, of your location, general condition or death. However, in both cases, the following conditions will apply:

(a) If you are present at or prior to the use or disclosure of your PHI, the Practice may use or disclose your PHI if you agree, or if the Practice can reasonably infer from the circumstances, based on the exercise of its professional judgment, that you do not object to the use or disclosure.

(b) If you are not present, the Practice will, in the exercise of professional judgment, determine whether the use or disclosure is in your best interests and, if so, disclose only the PHI that is directly relevant to the person's involvement with your care.

AUTHORIZATION

Uses and/or disclosures, other than those described above, will be made only with your written Authorization.

YOUR RIGHTS

1. You have the right to:

(a) Revoke any Authorization and/or Consent, in writing, at any time, except to the extent we have already relied upon it. To request a revocation, you must submit a written request to the Practice's Privacy Officer.

(b) Request restrictions on certain use and/or disclosure of your PHI as provided by law. However, the Practice is not obligated to agree to any requested restrictions. To request restrictions, you must submit a written request to the Practice's Privacy Officer. In your written request, you must inform the Practice of what information you want to limit, whether you want to limit the Practice's use or disclosure, or both, and to whom you want the limits to apply. If the Practice agrees to your request, the Practice will comply with your request unless the information is needed in order to provide you with emergency treatment.

(c) Receive confidential communications or PHI by alternative means or at alternative locations. You must make your request in writing to the Practice's Privacy Officer. The Practice will accommodate all reasonable requests.

(d) Inspect and copy your PHI as provided by law. To inspect and copy your PHI, you must submit a written request to the Practice's Privacy Officer. The Practice can charge you a fee for the cost of copying, mailing or other supplies associated with your request. In certain situations that are defined by law, the Practice may deny your request, but you will have the right to have the denial reviewed as set forth more fully in the written denial notice.

(e) Amend your PHI as provided by law. To request an amendment, you must submit a written request to the Practice's Privacy Officer. You must provide a reason that supports your request. The Practice may deny your request if it is not in writing, if you do not provide a reason in support of your request, if the information to be amended was not created by the Practice (unless the individual or entity that created the information is no longer available), if the information is not part of your PHI maintained by the Practice, if the information is not part of the information you would be permitted to inspect and copy, and/or if the information is accurate and complete. If you disagree with the Practice's denial, you will have the right to submit a written statement of disagreement. Note that even if we accept your request, we may not delete any information already documented in your record.

(f) Receive an accounting of disclosures of your PHI as provided by law. To request an accounting, you must submit a written request to the Practice's Privacy Officer. The request must state a time period which may not be longer than six (6) years. The request should indicate in what form you want the list (such as a paper or electronic copy). The first list you request within a twelve (12) month period will be free, but the Practice may charge you for the cost of providing additional lists. The Practice will notify you of the costs involved and you can decide to withdraw or modify your request before any costs are incurred.

(g) Receive a paper copy of this Privacy Notice from the Practice upon request to the Practice's Privacy Officer.

(h) Complain to the Practice or to the Secretary of HHS if you believe your privacy rights have been violated. To file a complaint with the Practice, you must contact the Practice's Privacy Officer. All complaints must be in writing.

(i) To obtain more information on, or have your questions about your rights answered, you may contact the Practice directly by mail at Inside Health, 2700 Madison Square Drive, Loveland, CO 80538, by email at frontdesk@insidehealth.com, or by phone at (970) 685-8060.

PRACTICE'S REQUIREMENTS

1. The Practice:

(a) Is not required by federal law to maintain the privacy of your PHI, but is committed to maintaining the privacy of your protected health information and providing you with this Privacy Notice detailing the Practice's privacy practices with respect to your PHI.

(c) Shall abide by the terms of this Privacy Notice.

(d) Reserves the right to change the terms of this Privacy Notice and to make the new Privacy Notice provisions effective for all of your PHI that it maintains.

(e) Will distribute any revised Privacy Notice to you prior to implementation.

(f) Will notify you in writing of any breach of your unsecured PHI without unreasonable delay and no later than 60 days after discovery of the breach.

(d) Will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

EFFECTIVE DATE

This Notice is in effect as of 4/1/2011. Updated 5/18/2021. Updated 10/27/2023.
